Class Poem

*Our school days are memories, silver and sweet
Sifting like stardust at our fearful feet.
We no longer as Seniors, seek spotlight sensation
But accept with reluctance this—our graduation.*

*As Freshmen we were faltering, studious, and shy
But nonchalant Sophomore days sped quickly by.
As Juniors we chattered, chanted yells, posed in plays
And deep friendships flavored our dear Senior days.*

*The lockers are bare of our bundles and books
Today new romancers haunt our favorite nooks.
An echo of laughter still lingers out there
Where we shared so much joy on the old Senior stair.*

*We go well poised for life with a purpose sincere
We have grown so in grace throughout each year.
We hope we are armed with both knowledge and skill
Also faith that will save us and power to will.*

*And ever before us to guide us aright
Is a dream of real valor, illumined by light.
From life's lessons we've learned, in these dear days of youth
A challenge for service, a vision of truth.*

For he has already found his wings.
Band 3, 4; Aeronautics Club 4.*

REYNOLDS E. MOORE

*Some people have the wit to know
In observation they can grow
While others dance about the place
As frivolous as a piece of lace.*

SAMUEL HOWARD MORROW, JR.

*At cheering I'm always at the top
On the dance floor I'm a whiz
But if you want to see me flop
Just look in on a geometry quiz.
Lake Forest H. S., Lake Forest, Ill.; Ludington H. S.,
Ludington, Mich.; Cheerleader 1, 2, 3, 4; Monogram
Club.*

AGNES MORTON

*"I'll live each moment to the full
For though they soon are gone
Piled up they'll make me quite a past
To build my future on."*

I'm usually in trouble, but I have fun galore.*

R. O. T. C. Band 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 4; Band Club
2, 3.

CATHERINE AHEARN MURRAY

*Graceful and blond—the ideal model
She loves to talk and drink from a bottle.*

Basketball 1; Tennis Club 1; Physical Education
1, 2, 3; Wildcat Reporter 1; Choir 4.

WALBURG MOREL

*He smiles from the corner of his eyes
His face lights with mirth
We'd rather have this quality
Than many things on earth.*

EUNICE KATHERINE MURRELL

*Actions speak louder than words—I know
This in my daily life I show.*

Basketball 1; Physical Education Club 1, 2, 4; Choir
4; Home Economics Club 4.

BILLY MURRELL

*His aim is never to offend
And every person is his friend.*

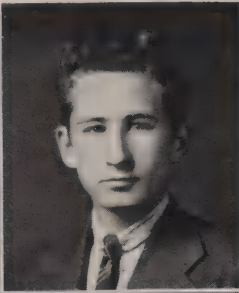

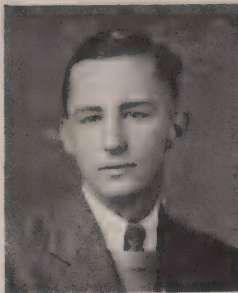

BERTHA MARY MUSIAL

*Learning, courtesy, service, tact
She's mastered these and that's a fact.*

Nature Club 1; Latin Club 1; Chemistry Club 3;
Cooperative Employment 4.

The Hanoverian

BURTON K. MYERS

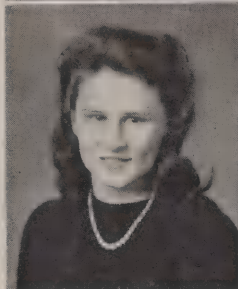

*"To get adjusted to the world
Is after all the wisest aim.
It won't adjust itself to us
For it was here before we came."*

2, 3, 4; Wildcat Staff 1.

NORMAN N. NELMS, JR.

*Norman has a serious vein
He seems above us in his thinking
He faces challenges each day
From which the weaker heart is shrinking.*

R. O. T. C. 2, 3, 4; Officers' Club 4; Aeronautics
Club 4; Homeroom Chairman 1.

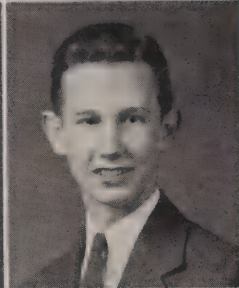

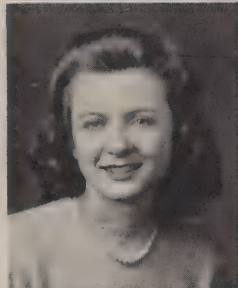

LOIS NIVEN

*To say she is the quiet kind
Just is not being fair
She's simply hiding wisdom
With more than usual care*

MAISIE OLIVER

*A winning way
Stands high today.*

ELSIE EARLE ORREL

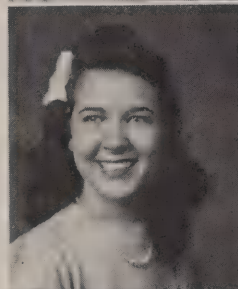

*"I love small uncivilized things,
Babies and rabbits and birds,
Who carry around in their eyes
Little strange thoughts without words."*

Dramatic Club 2; O. Henry Literary Society 4.

JOHN ROBERT OWEN

*His is a sense of rhythm
With a martial swing and pep
He's constantly playing a tuneful march
While the boys are keeping step.*

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Band Club 1, 2; Chemistry Club 3.

EULA MAIE PADRICK

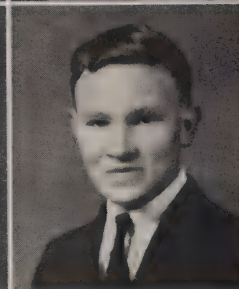

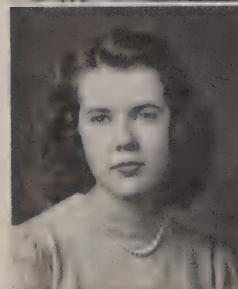

*We're often left to wonder
How so many arts can be
Bound into just one bundle
So versatile as she.*

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 3; Dramatic Club 1;
Bible Club 2, 3; Home Economics Club 1, 4; Basketball—Honorary Varsity 1.

ALMA CARLEEN PAGE

*"Look on things with friendly eyes,
Cast out little hates.
Just love life with all your heart—
Life reciprocates."*

Wildcat 4; Latin Club 1; Home Economics Club 2;
Bible Club 4.

KATHRYN PERDEW

*"The sailor has no harder job
Who sails the stormy oceans
Than I who steer my little soul
Through strange and deep emotions."*

Home Economics Club 2, 3; Glee Club 1; Tennis
Club 1; Bible Club 2, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; French Club 3.

HENRY PETERSON

*Dream a great ambition
Seek a beckoning star
May all your efforts bring you
Where true great men are.*

The Hanoverian

DAN PHILLIPS

*I found a way to cure today
That foolish mood of hurry
I simply stopped the clock and then
I didn't have to worry.*

J. FRED POWELL

*His looks are most deceiving
Timid, shy, in meditation
When he gets around a crowd of girls
It's a shocking revelation.
Bible 1; Band 2, 3; Co-op. 4.*

MAURICE POWELL

*He's a good looking chap and likable
Strong in mind and build as any
But he acts indifferent and pretends
Of brains he hasn't any.*

W. T. PRIDGEN

*The world will keep on turning
If the days sometimes go wrong
He has already learned his lesson
And meets the day with a song.*

IRENE PUCKETT

*Curly locks, curly locks
Lucky Irene
No wonder you wear
A smile so serene.*

BESSIE LEE RACKLEY

*She's ready for the Victory Corps
Bessie's trying to prepare
In purposeful activities
To do more than her share
Physical Education Club 1, 4; Choir 4; Home Economics 4.*

GWENDOLYN JUNE RACKLEY

*She's never failed to lend a hand
She's never failed to smile
And her blue eyes twinkling, teasing
Keep you guessing all the while.*

CAROLYN REGISTER

*She's just the type
That we admire
We see her in an ad
But she's athletic because it's her way
Not because of any lad.*

ROSALIE REAVES

*Give her a hoop skirt
A fine bit of lace
In a romantic age
She finds her right place.*

GRACE WINIFRED RHODES

*Nonsense, nonsense all day long,
Doesn't your world ever go wrong?*

The Hanoverian

SARA EDITH RICHARDSON

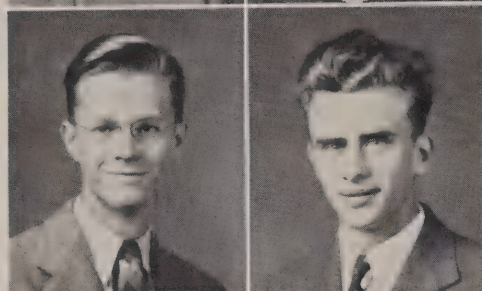

*She's vivacious and fresh
As a shining spring day
She is straight forward, friendly
Happy and gay.*

Home Room Chairman 2; Library Club 4; Bible Club
4; Wildcat Reporter 4; Biology Club 1; Tennis Club 1.

BETTY JANE RIDAUGHT

*I'm sure I have a brave stern soul
That naught in life can override
But when I meet folks on the walk
It's always me who turns aside.*

Bible Club 2; O. Henry Literary Society 4; Chemistry Club 4.

JOHN EDWARD RIDDICK, JR.

*They say he doesn't like to work
And yet he seems to all the while
Perhaps it is a game with him
To win his way with his ready smile.*

R. O. T. C. 1, 2, 3.

CLYDE RIGGS

*You can't make him mad
He's industrious too
Day and night, school and shipyard
He never is through.*

WINIFRED JOYCE RIVENBARK

*When people tell me secrets
I'm often moved to ask
Since they themselves can't keep them
Why give to me that task?*

Latin Club 1.

AUGUSTA MAE ROETHLINGER

*She's more than uncommon smart
Is Augusta Mae Roethlinger
The handful of talent most of us have
Aren't worth her little finger.*

Freshman Science Club 1, (Secretary); Latin Club 1;
Chemistry Club 3; Bible Club 2; Home Economics
Club 3, 4; Aeronautics Club 4; Physical Education
Club 2.

IAN DALLAS ROTHWELL

*This member leaves us all aghast
He came from foreign parts
With a list of accomplishments reading
Like a catalogue of arts.*

R. O. T. C. 2, 3; Glee Club 3; Chemistry Club 4;
Aeronautics Club 4; Bible Club 4; (Football, 1, 2;
Swimming 2; Cricket 2; Grange School, Santiago, Chile).

ROBERT EDWARD ROUDABUSH

*Conventions cramp my sweeping style.
Why should I be ruled by custom?
For those, rules were only made, I think,
Who are too weak to bust 'em.*

R. O. T. C. 2, 3; Thespians 1; Chemistry Club 3.

The Hanoverian

EVELYN ROUSE

*I do not strive to guide my life
With firm and brain-restricted hand
So often drifting here and there,
I touch the shores of fairyland.*

Latin Club 1; Bible Club 3, 4; O. Henry Literary Society 4; Physical Education Club 2; Wildcat Staff 4.

BUREN ROURK

*Some people speak of killing time.
I don't know any greater crime.
With work and beauty they might fill it—
And yet they sit around and kill it.*

MITCHELL SALEEBY, JR.

*I feel so smug when I've been good
I soon become unbearable
I'm really pleasanter to know
When I have just been terrible.*

Chemistry Club 1; Aeronautics Club 1; Boxing Team 2, 3; R. O. T. C. 1, 2, 3; Latin Club 1, 2.

JAMES SALMON

*To know and not to do is small
He knows, he does
- - - - he shames us all.*

BETTY ALLEN SANDERS

*She may be little and petite;
Betty is studious, neat, and sweet.*

HARRY SANDERS

*Just by touching a lever
Adjusting a screw
The trouble is found
And the thing is like new.*

HERTHA BELL SANDERS

*Look beneath
The quiet air
Find a gem
That's mighty rare.*

Home Economics Club 1; Bible Club 2.

CHARLES E. SASSER

*Music seems to be his boon
He wends his way with a whistled tune.*

WARD SAUNDERS

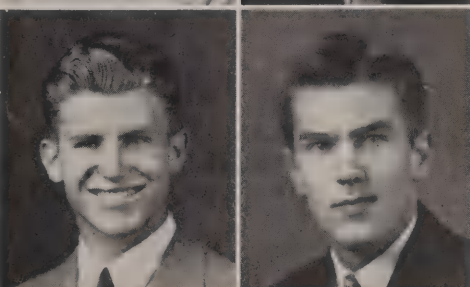

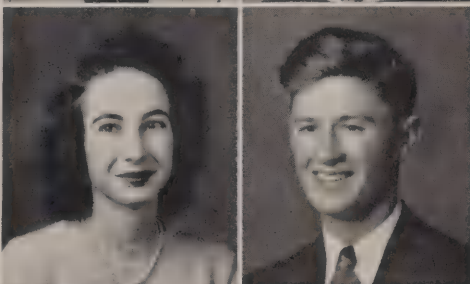

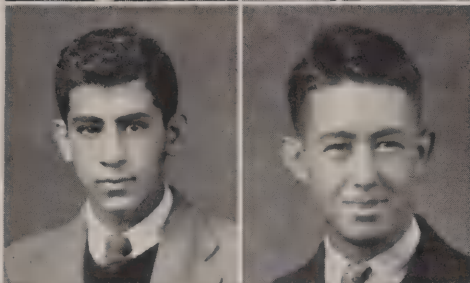

*He doesn't brag about his size
Nor yet about his strength
We wish we had as much of poise
As well as much of length.*

JAMES MURPHY SCOGGINS

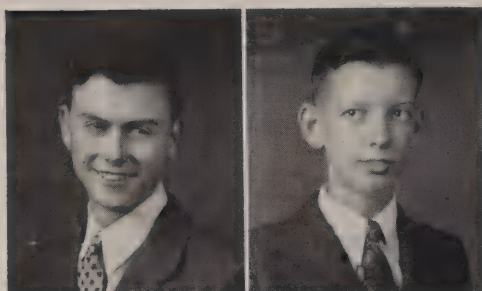

*A baseball pitcher
A football star
When Murphy plays
The fans are thar.*

Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Bible Club 2; Home Room Organization 3.

married, 1945-

The Hanoverian

JAMES COOLIDGE SHEPARD

*He's bent on his vocation
He's going to win success
We wish him joy of winning
And a sense of happiness.*
Cooperative Employment 4.

JAMES B. SHERWOOD

*If I should get ahead through pull
Instead of earning my advance
I'd lose as much in character
As I'd be gaining in finance.*
R. O. T. C. 1, 2; Chemistry Club 4.

KATHERINE SHOOTER

*She'll be merry, she'll be free;
She'll be mad for nobody.*

FAIRE ELIZABETH SIKES

*Her name bespeaks her size
Of virtues she has many
Of people who dislike her
Well—there yet are not any.*
Art Club 2, 3, 4; Hi-Steppers 2, 3; Physical Club 2.

ROBERT SIMPSON

*He's cute
We'll all admit it
We enjoyed his witty cracks,
With curly hair, good looking
Is there anything he lacks?*

ROLAND SINCLAIR

*I can always make excuses
When I'm disinclined to work
But when I am hiring someone
How I hate to see him shirk!*

JOHN MILLS SKIPPER

*While animals live care-free lives
And birds soar high on joyous wings
The human race with wood and nails
Just fills the world with shapes of things.*
R. O. T. C. 1, 2; Rifle Team 1, 2; Woodwork 1, 2, 3.

ANN SMALLEY

*I think I'd like to be a tree
And stand and sway without a care.
And have the fragrant rain-washed wind
Run long, strong fingers through my hair.*
Home Economics Club 2; Bible Club 1.

AL SMITH

*What's in a name?
May it bring luck
He doesn't need it though
He's full of pluck.*

ANNIE RAE SMITH

*Search the world
From end to end
You'll never find
A truer friend.*
Physical Education Club 1; Bible Club 1, 2, 4; Latin Club 1; Home Economics Club 3.

The Hanoverian

CAMILLE SMITH

*Her voice is gentle, low and sweet
Her disposition's hard to beat.
Bible Club 4.*

FLOISE B. SMITH

*"Across the moonlight on the snow
I saw a young, wild rabbit go
How lightly!—making no more sound
Than his long shadow on the ground."*

LOU ELLEN SMITH

*When your day gets in a jam
With twice the work for which you've time
Desert it for a matinee
It's on the way to one that I'm.
Bible Club 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 1, 2; Physical Education Club 1; Glee Club 2, 3; O. Henry Literary Society 4; Chemistry Club 4.*

MILDRED EDNA SMITH

*I like a life of daring,
To make mistakes and then
Look forward, never caring,
And take new risks again.
Bible Club 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club 3, 4; Biology Club 1; Physical Education Club 2.*

PAUL MYERS SNELL

*Paul likes tennis and the girls
Especially a blond with lots of curls.

ANNIE ELIZABETH SNIPES

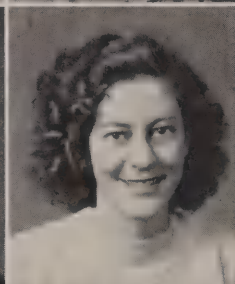

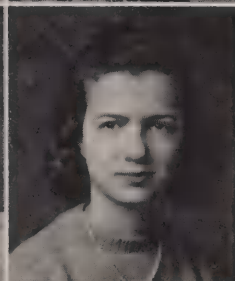

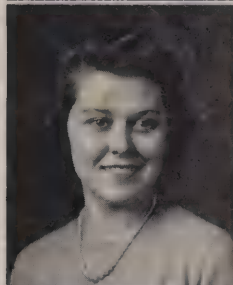

*I love grey days of wind and rain
When all the big trees shout and play
And misty days all filled with dreams
I just love weather anyway.
Library Club 4; Bible Club 4; Latin Club 1; Home Economics Club 2; Physical Education Club 2; High Steppers 1, 2.*

MARIE LOUISE SOLOMON

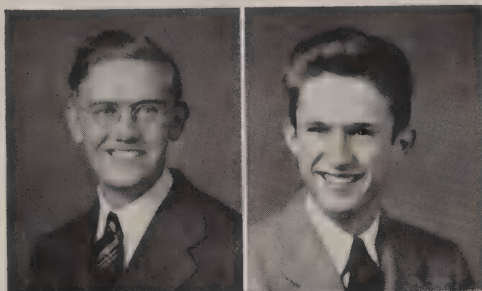

*The humble part I play in life
Does not much help my self-esteem
But in the diary I keep
You'd be surprised how grand I seem.
Junior Play; Art Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 2, 3; Latin Club 1.*

VIRGINIA SONDEY

*I never envy millionaires
Their wealth and motor cars—
I'd like to be a poet though
For they own all the stars.
Scribblers' Club 2; Latin Club 3; Chemistry Club 3; Home Economics 4.*

The Hanoverian

ARLEY SOUTHERLAND

*Another songster
On the air
A thrilling tenor
I declare.*

FRANKLIN SPARKMAN

*Giggling, mischievous
Franklin Sparkman
Never serious, quite a larkman.*

SILVA SPENCER

*Contentment is a priceless gift,
But discontent is helpful too—
I want the first for what I have,
The second, though, for what I do.*

MARY HELEN STALVEY

*I'd like to play away my time
But I've a conscience, too
That holds me to the trying task
When I have work to do.*

Glee Club 2; (Winter Haven, Florida); Basketball 2, (Winter Haven, Florida); Swimming Team 2, (Winter Haven, Florida).

ROBERT STELJIS

*Robert means what he says
He's candid, in fact
We admire his sincerity
Truthfulness, tact.*

R. O. T. C. 1; Member House of Representatives, (Winston-Salem).

ISABEL STELLINGS

*One minor joy I have in fall
Almost too small to speak about—
It's after rain to step on leaves
And see the water spurting out.
Art Club 1, 2, 3; French Club 2, 3; Latin Club 1;
Hi-Y 4.*

MARGUERITE STEVENS

*She's gentle and unassuming
Her voice is ever low
She's priceless beyond measure
If anyone should want to know.*

FANNIE MAE STEWART

*She isn't plain just full of pep
When sports are open she's in step.
Home Economics 4; Bible Club 4.*

VIRTIE PAYSEUR STROUP

*Stained glass windows make the light
Like songs of beauty from the sun
Life could shine through us like that,
You and me and everyone.*

Library Club 2, 3, 4, (President 3, 4); Junior-Senior Committee 3; Wildcat Reporter 4; Scribblers Club 3.

HESTER C. STRUTHERS

*Whenever a problem comes up in my life
I decide it and promptly forget it—
It isn't so much the decision that counts
As the willpower not to regret it.*

Glee Club 1; Home Economics Club 3, 4.

The Hanoverian

DOROTHY S. SUTHERLAND

*I love the tender, brooding sky,
It rests my eyes and spirits too—
I wish that I could climb up high
And plunge my arms deep in its blue.*

Club 3; Photographer Annual 4; Rifle Team 3.

MARY COWAN SYMMES

*I wish I had a ticket for Siam
I'm getting pretty bored with where I am
But when I'm in Siam why all I'll do
Is wish I had a ticket for Peru.*
Wildcat 1, 4; Tennis Club 1; Latin Club; Home
Economics Club 4; Bible Club 4; French Club 3.

HILDA TADLOCK

*I can't roam freely through the world,
Life seems to shut me in with bars;
And yet a pool that lies quite still
Can mirror flying birds and stars.*
Glee Club; Know Your City Club; Speech Club;
Community Sing; (Dothan High School).

F. ALVAH TATUM, JR.

*He's a hero you can bet
Our sportsmen always are
But he would be a hero
If he weren't a baseball star.*

ANN ELIZABETH UPCHURCH

*Ann can type so fast that we
Stand aghast at so great skill
Perfect she is in all she does
No one can match her, no one will.*

JEAN ESTHER VENDIG

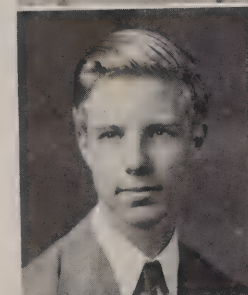

*This girl is mighty lucky
Dark, rich hair and simple grace
But her greatest attribute we think
Is her smiling, friendly face.*

French Club 1, 3; Spanish Club 4; Art Club 2, 4;
Homeroom Chairman 3, 4; Wildcat Ad Solicitor 3.

PRISCILLA MAE VEREEN

*Priscilla sounds of arrows crisp
Of dainty sewing, spinning
Of courage and sincerity
And ways disarming, winning.*

BILLY WAGNER

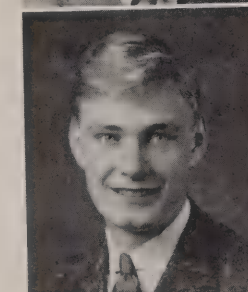

*He's keen in mathematics
In thinking he is steady
Before the question's ever asked
He has the answer ready.*

LOUISE HUNTINGDON WARNER

*I love to tell my secrets,
I do it all unbidden.
My hidden life's so thrilling
I cannot keep it hidden.*

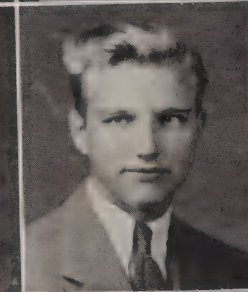

Tennis Club 1, 2; French Club 3.

RONALD LAGRAN D WALTERS

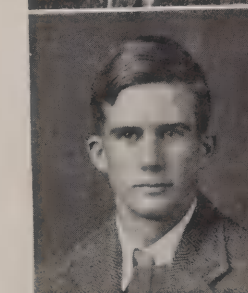

*He has a clever accent
He's a blond, good looking, tall
But if you throw him compliments
He doesn't care at all.*

And spy a plane just soaring
You can just remember Hall
Most air minded of us all.*

R. O. T. C. 2, 3, 4; Officers' Club 4; Rifle Team 3, 4;
Aeronautics Club 4.

E. C. WATTS

*He has a disposition
That accepts the terms of life
And sends him making friendships
Wherever there is strife*

R. O. T. C. 1

The Hanoverian

HARDY WESSELL

*We think he starts an argument
Just to get attention
But we like him in so many ways
This fact we'll hardly mention.*
Scribblers' Club 2; Aero Club 2, 4.

BILLIE MARIE WEST

*Perhaps a flirt
Some will say,
But she may not be—
It's just her way.*

Other folks admire your pluck
And they know to make your record
Isn't just a case of luck.*

BILLY WILLIAMS

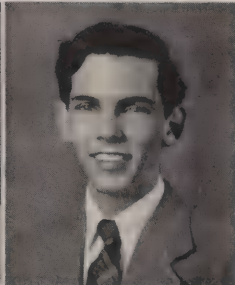

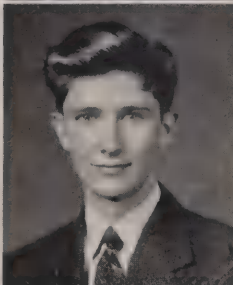

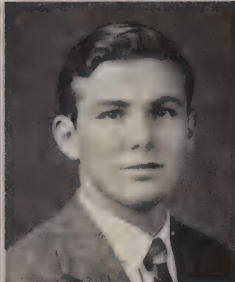

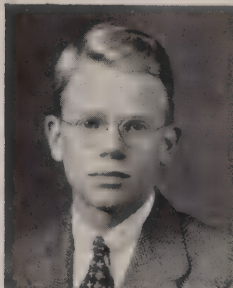

*Keeps us moving with his rhythm
When we hear his quick drum beat
People passing catch the spirit
All go marching down the streets.*

IRIS WOODCOCK

*To her the navy
Seems thrilling and grand
If she follows her interest
In the Waves she will land.*
Glee Club; Bible Club.

OSCAR WRENN

*My memory's like a spider's web
That holds bright joys like drops of dew.
With here and there an awful rent
Where whole long weeks have fallen through.*

The Hanoverian

ANDREW D. XANTHOS

*"I'd like to go where music grows—
While violin notes blew my hair
I'd wander through the organ groves
And gather little grace notes there."*

Wilmington, North Carolina,
December 16, 1945.

Dearest:

I just couldn't help writing you tonight. I went out to old N. H. H. S. yesterday about lunch time and then after school let out. This morning I went in time for the Junior-Senior assembly. I really felt out of place there; I don't know why except that now I feel a lot older since I've come back. It had been a long time since I had walked up those steps and entered the building. I saw lots of the people I had known as freshmen three long years ago.

Now they are happy-go-lucky seniors, crowding on the steps at lunch just as we used to do. They too are carefree and as bubbling over with life as anyone could be.

Yesterday, when I entered the school, the first person I saw was Edwin Shain, who was conducting some sort of business in the office. He struck me as being the successor and perfect counterpart of Robert Hollis. He seemed just as efficient as Hollis always was.

Then I saw Coach Bryan and asked him about the football team's outcome this year. He said that New Hanover High School had won the conference championship! Graham Barefoot and Johnny Symmes, who have ably taken the places of "Pop" Thomas and Harold Jeter as mainstays of the team, are good candidates for All-State.

I walked into the auditorium and sat down on the back row. The Wildcat was having a publicity amateur show and Mary Benson and Sarah Anne Eaton were singing a new swing song. They were really good. I think that they even equalled Ida Laura Childs and Sally Margaret Johnston.

I left the assembly and wandered around the halls for a while. In the hall I met George Clark, who has turned out to be a wit like Doug Jewell was three years ago. Then Pat Hardwick joined us, and she made me think of Blanche Jacobi. She is everybody's friend and no one's enemy. After a while I reached the school store, where I found Liston Mills, who has taken Buddy Davis' place as the head of the school store. He told me that Robert Strickland has come to the fore in school politics and other activities. It seems he has taken Dewey Hobbs' place in student life.

Later I saw one of my teachers of three years ago, who told me about her students. She said that Elizabeth Marye, Cynthia Johnson, and Betty Field are just as good students as Eloise Smith and Mary Cameron Dixon were. She also told me that Anna Kamer is a leader in all school activities just as Dotty Cameron used to be.

I left the school at the end of Home Room period and came back at lunch period. On the senior steps was the usual mob. I noticed Patsy Smith, who was talking someone's head off, just as Mary Symmes loved to do. I also noticed Nell Trask, surrounded by a large group of male admirers. Nell has a wonderful personality, very much like Dotty Sutherland's. As I was leaving the school, I saw "Bootie" Harriss, who has become the leader of a wonderful political machine. She is the best politician the old school has seen in a long time.

Just then the bell rang, and they all sauntered inside, talking and laughing as seniors always have. I wrote you just to tell about the seniors at the high school, and how they are like those we used to know. Isn't it awful to grow old? Please write me a letter soon.

Your old schoolmate.

FOOTBALL TEAM

First row: BILLY AULD, HENRY BORNEMAN, JACK LOWRIMORE, HAROLD JETER, DEWEY HOBBS, ERNEST JOHNSON, JIMMY COUGHENOUR, ROCKWELL POISSON, C. F. BELL, JOHNNY SYMMES, LOUIS HANSON.

Second row: PAUL CAMPBELL, WALTER MCCORMICK, HUGH MILTON, B. D. ALBRIGHT, J. B. JOYE, A. L. KING, GRAHAM BAREFOOT, ROBERT HUFHAM, BILLY HAAS, SELLARS, JOHN GOINS, JOHN VENTERS.

Third row: COACH RUPERT BRYAN, BILLY MCILWAIN, RANDALL DYCHES, JOHN BURNEY, WILBUR CORBETT, BILL FARMER, ERNEST MAYHAN, JIMMY SNOW, BILL McDONALD, NED DOWD, JOHN HOBBS, VIC HERRING, COACH ALBERT CHIEMIEGO.

The football team this year was rated by many among New Hanover High's best elevens. Although its record in the conference shows one win and four defeats, the scores were no indication of the type of football that our boys played. The team lost their games by the following scores: Durham 19-6, Rocky Mount 20-6, Raleigh 6-0, and Wilson 7-6. The team won the first conference game that New Hanover High has won since '37, by defeating Fayetteville 7-6. The seniors playing on the team this year were Co-Captains Heatwole Thomas, and Dewey Hobbs, playing quarterback and tackle respectively; Harold Jeter, back; Jimmy Coughenour, back; Charles Edwards, back; Ernest Johnson, back; C. F. Bell, back; Henry Borneman, back; Walter McCormick, end; A. L. King, tackle; Robert Hufham, guard; Bill Haas, guard; John Goins, end; Bill Farmer, guard; Bill McDonald, center; Wilbur Corbett, end; John Burney, tackle.

BASKETBALL TEAM

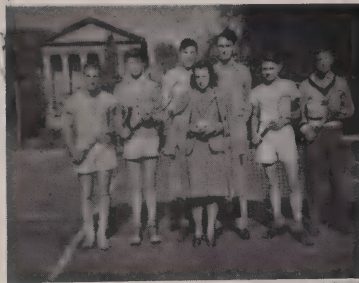

First row: B. D. ALBRIGHT, BILLY AULD, ERNEST JOHNSON, DOUGLAS PRIDGEN, VIC HERRING, BILLY HAAS, Manager.

Second row: COACH ALBERT CHIEMIEGO, ERNEST MAYHAN, HARRY WILLIAMS, DICKY WATTS, FRANK KELLY, LEONARD MCKOY.

The basketball team this year made an impressive record under its new coach, Albert Chiemiego. The team met with much strong opposition, and it seemed definitely headed for a berth in the top bracket. Many of the conference games were cancelled because of the lack of transportation facilities. The boys on the team played a clean brand of ball and were liked for their fine sportsmanship. The seniors who have played their last game for New Hanover High are Leonard McKoy and Frank Kelley.

CLASS HISTORY

They met that summer at the seashore. It was night and they were seated by the ocean. Moonlight sparkled on the water like stardust. A moonbeam glistened a moment on a shiny object on his right hand. She leaned over. It was a ring—a black onyx set in gold.

"What class?" she asked.

"1943. The class of 1943 New Hanover High School."

"Oh-h-h," she breathed softly. "Did you like high school?"

"Yes, I guess it was all right. Remember when I was a Freshman our class gave the upperclassmen heck. We didn't go up the "down" steps once without causing a riot of some sort. We had a time. We were all kind of scared and green at first, but after we elected our president, let's see, think that was Charlie Brindell, nice fellow. You know him?" She shook her head. "Well after we elected Charlie and our student council representatives, we began to feel at home—too much at home—the Seniors said."

"We had the first afternoon dances in the history of the school that year. Some of us found time to go, but most were too busy studying algebra and that stuff.

"We'd walk down the halls trying to guess which teacher was Miss Struthers or Miss Levin or Mrs. LeGrand; we'd heard all the upperclassmen talk about them so much.

"Now our sophomore year wasn't so very busy. We had our fun hazing the freshmen. They would get lost and we'd give them the old one about being on the fourth floor and go back down on the elevator—'Course we didn't have either one."

She giggled. He stopped talking a minute. "Maybe I'm talking too much, but a lot can happen in four years."

"Sure, go ahead. I want to hear about it."

"Well, like I said nothing much happened that year. Except they started building the new gym right in the middle of the class' favorite gathering place. But when they finished, it was a gym anybody could be proud of. We didn't use it much until our Junior year and that was the year of years."

"Tell me about it," she urged.

"We did a lot of things we'd never done before; like going to chapel with the Seniors and giving our first class play, 'June Mad.' Then we had our Junior-Senior Dance. It was very educational. In the form of a night club."

"Educational?" she broke in.

"Sure," he explained. "Preparing us for future life, I suppose. Anyway President Harry McGirt was master of ceremonies.

"But the most important thing that happened was the United States' declaration of war on Japan. We all gathered in the auditorium, the whole school, to hear the President's speech. After it was over they played the 'Star Spangled Banner,' and most of the girls had tears streaming down their faces and didn't even care. We boys just tried to look grim and important because we knew we'd fight some day. A few days later N. H. S. declared war on the Axis. Then almost before we knew it, it was June and time for school to close. We weren't very happy about that really, because we hated to see the Seniors graduate. They'd been so close to us, almost like older brothers and sisters.

"It wasn't long before we were marching up the Senior steps, following in their tracks as best we could. Our class, headed by John Codington, was the first one to elect officers and representatives by the new constitution. We felt kind of big and important the first months, being on the Senior steps and going out first in chapel, but we got used to it and it wasn't anything at all. We gave our Senior play and the Juniors gave us a wonderful Junior-Senior.

"Then came graduation. We tried to act as if we were glad it was all over, but we didn't fool anybody. When we stepped up to get our diplomas, we had a funny feeling, like everything was all over and we couldn't go back."

He stopped talking and looked down at his ring. She thought she saw something glisten on the back of his hand—and it wasn't the ring, either. Silently he reached over and took her hand.

THEY DOOD IT!

It was the year 1955 and a dream of centuries past had just been realized. The national spotlight swung South to America's foremost "boom town" where millions stood in breathless anticipation as swing king Walter Barnes led his Boogie-Woogie Bugle Boys in the third movement of "The Unfinished Symphony." A deafening applause filled the air when it was finally completed, and a distinguished gentleman rose to his feet.

"My friends," began Mayor Heyward Bellamy, borrowing the words of still most quoted man of the day, "we are celebrating an occasion of momentous importance to the people of our fair city—

"Today, with proud hearts, we welcome home some of our now famous sons and daughters to share with us the celebration of a dream which they themselves have felt for a number of years. Now, without further ado, may I introduce to you our master of ceremonies, America's number one comedian—'Willie, still going strong, Hewlett!'

"Greetings you-all. Last night I heard a joke which, I think, is the only one new enough for such a distinguished audience. I know all of you all will think like me and say it's as fresh as a salt water fish what's done laid on the beach all day. 'Say, who was that lady I done saw you all with last night?' Ha, that wasn't no lady, that was—'Ida Laura Child, veteran Metropolitan star, who will now sing, 'Ain't I Glad You'll Soon Put Your Number 12's in Those Rambling Shoes!'

North Carolina's first woman senator gave a short address which was interrupted by the roar of an airplane overhead. Why, it was Roy Boggs, sending his congratulations from Pepsi Cola's airship. Wilmington's missionary to Hollywood, Billy Halyburton, told of many of his experiences in reforming the movie colony. Wandering through the audience, Burt Myers, Bill Stern's successor, spoke to some of the outstanding personalities present at this historical event.

"Who's that pretty boy in the red plaid suit and dark green glasses? Why, it's none other than Charles Boyer, Jr., better known in these parts as Charles Brindell.—And the little brunette under the sombrero is our own Isabel Stellings, known to the world as the creator of 'Boot's Booful Bootery.'—The fierce looking man by her side is Sanford Doxey, who only last night won the world's heavyweight championship from Joe Louis.—Yes, it's truly a memorable occasion folks. Why, even hermit Johnny Goins came out of his shell for the day! And there is the governor's wife, the former Miss Millie Evans.—America's greatest woman educator, Frances Jordan, is in one corner busy giving Betsy Applewhite a few pointers on how to make her first grade students bring her apples without worms in them.—Here comes Blanche Jacobi, sweetheart of Sigma Chi surrounded by U. S. Drum Major Henry Meier, Waltz King Donald Mathews, and zoot suit model Robert Huffam. But I'm afraid that's all for now because here is Jack Christian, principal of New Hanover High School, who will introduce to you the man who is responsible for the victory we celebrate today. Hey, wake up Mr. Christian, you're on!"

"Uh—Oh, hello folks. Here is Coach 'Pop' Thomas, who led our 1960 Wildcats to the state championship by defeating Raleigh last week with a score of 60-0, and completing the season with no defeats—

By the deafening cheers that followed, even the most casual observer knew that the Wildcats had finally dood it.

The Hanoverian

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF NEW HANOVER.

Know all men by these presents that we, the class of '43, New Hanover High School, city of Wilmington, county and state aforesaid, being of sound body and equally sound mind, memory and understanding, do hereby will and bequeath all our worldly possessions to our heirs and assigns as stipulated in the manner and form following, that is to say:

FIRST: Our desks, classrooms, and immovable fixtures we leave to the school district; all moveable fixtures probably to disappear with us when we depart this seat of learning;

SECOND: Our teachers and instructors we leave to our friends and relatives in succeeding classes, with a heartfelt prayer for their mutual happiness;

THIRD: The Senior steps we leave to the class of '44, with the sincere hope that the aforesaid class will be able to withstand underclassmen attacks with half the success with which we met them;

FOURTH: Whereas, it is our wish and desire to leave our most outstanding qualities to those not as endowed as ourselves, we designate the following, that is to say:

I, Joseph Dewey Hobbs, do will and bequeath my enormous and substantial feet to the '44 football team, believing the aforesaid team will sadly be in need of a firm foundation;

I, Dotty Cameron, do will and bequeath my unlimited charm to Virginia McCormick, although it seems she has more than her share already;

I, Sanford Doxey, do will and bequeath my promise of absolute loyalty to Byah Thomason, with the hope that she will return the same;

I, Johnny Goins, do will and bequeath my curls to Dickie Watts, realizing his need of the like;

I, Eloise Smith, leave my abundant supply of intelligence to Eleanor Burgwin, with the acquired knowledge that a little more can do no harm;

I, Bunny Davis, do will and bequeath my love of dancing to Miss Emma Lossen, knowing that she will make good use of my bequest;

We, Agnes Morton and "Pop" Thomas, do will and bequeath our vim, vigor, and vitality to Cleo Paturis and B. D. Albright;

I, Margaret Hardwick, do will and bequeath my bashful mannerisms to Betty Harriss, to be used as she deems desirable;

We, John Codington and Herbert Davis, do will and bequeath our way with the women to Lem Doss and Rockwell Poisson, to be passed on if not needed;

I, Louise Warner, do will and bequeath that quality called "glamour" to Anne LaPorte;

I, Burt Myers, do will and bequeath my extraordinary luck in various card games to George Johnson;

I, Camille Long, do will and bequeath that intangible something called "technique" to Margaret Wenburg;

I, Ann Lee, do will and bequeath my patience in Government class to Katherine Dixon, knowing that she will need a great deal of the same;

I, Mildred Evans, do will and bequeath my copy of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" to Betsy Benson to be passed on if she finds no more need of it than I have.

We, the aforesaid class of '43, do will and bequeath to New Hanover High School our promise to spread her fame far and wide, to uphold her splendid ideals forever and to ever carry her memory embedded in our hearts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said class of '43, do hereunto set our hand and affix our seal.

Signed: BLANCHE JACOBI (Seal)

BETSY APPLEWHITE (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said class of '43, as for and to be their last will and testament in the presence of us, we do hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Signed:

LUCY HORNE,

HOWARD MORROW,

ISABEL STELLINGS.
